Competition Administration: Eastern Light EPM International
(Organisers of Excel for Charity competitions)

Terms & Conditions

1. You may enter as many poems as you want.
2. The decision of the judge is final, and no communication will be entered into.
3. For transparency, Eastern Light EPM International makes it clear that the primary aims of this competition are to raise money for the charity and to honour the winning writers. The prize money is expected to be generated by the entry fees. In the event that there are too few entries to pay the prize money from the entry fees after a third has been earmarked for donation to the charity, we reserve the right to either reappportion the prize money or refund all entry fees to the entrants by the methods they paid for their entries.
4. Postal entries must be received by 20th of April 2011.
5. Online entries must be received by midnight 20th of April 2011.
6. Poems will not be returned, please don't send your only copy.
7. The judge's report will be published alongside the winning and commended poems in Swale Life Magazine on the 25th of May 2011.
8. When you enter the competition we will invite you to join our mailing list so that you may receive updates on this and other competitions. Joining the mailing list is optional. We will never sell your details to anybody for research or marketing purposes.
